Kyoto

Hues from the palette of indigos - a dye made from a variety of plants, have been traditionally used by Japanese in their clothing and daily textiles. Straight lines create borders and crossing into squares; separating the subject from background and gives solidity and definition to the intricate pattern.

Sydney

A city full of vibrant energy but also within close proximity to a various of natural 's finest beaches. Relaxing from a day' s work and escaping to nearby retreat, whether it is swimming with the dolphins at Bondi or just lying on the sand and watching the magic of the lights around the harbor during sunset.
